

INDIA: A NATION OF GODMAN OR MEN MISUSING GOD?

-NIHARIKA VERMA¹

INTRODUCTION

God and faith are huge things in India and actually throughout the world. Holy man is a variety term used in India for a type of fascinating Guru. They usually have high profile presence and capacity to grab the attention of society. May be some more in the world's largest representative than most other places. Not similar to theocratic countries, 'Holy man' and 'God' of not just solitary, but different beliefs and sects hold way here than other foreign countries.

This might illustrate or consider being the illustration of the secular essence of the nation, it also marshal to the increase in the digit of what could be stated 'holy' or 'unholy' men and women, totally determining on individuals beliefs and perspectives. The recent disclosure about the 'divine preoccupations' of holy man in the sacred limits of their ashrams (place of religion retreat) have been awful; the reason is not they were deprived of such attributes in past. During the time of the Maharaj libel case (1862) through tempt of Chandraswami and Dheerendra Brahmachari, to concurrent saga of Dera and Asaram Bapu, the list is nerve ending. But this span of eventuality of sex, murder and mayhem, which were repeatedly taken place in their ashrams. That the holy men were able to chase their absorptions for years without grabbing the attention of the state is not surprising, given the network between political power and religious formations, but it is actually culpable.

Mankind sink victim to such con-men

From a stretch, the holy men of our nation are darkly droll. Guru Ashutosh Maharaj, whose followers have stockpiled his body in a freezer since a mortal heart attack three years ago, affirming that he is meditating, His family wishes to scorch him, Punjab and Haryana High court sided with his supporters, spotlighting the 'freedom of conscience'. The dead of 30 people and I guess more than that following the Gurmeet Ram Rahim Singh's conviction of rape should be shaded such mirage of graciousness. The resolution against the spiritual leaders and the follower who prompts rioting (section 146 of the Indian Penal Code) from his religious group, the Dera Sacha Sauda. The mess of holy men is about religion less than politics, while few are delegated by Hindutva nationalism. The most active of these is Yogi Adityanath, the BJP and CM of Uttar Pradesh, who gave order to the followers to convert 100 Muslim women for each and every Hindu women converted. This type of diction costs lives; Gauri Lankesh, a journalist and detractor of the Indian far-right, was murdered in Bangalore outside her home a few months back. Asaram Bapu, a holy man who got substantial plots of land from political party for his religious centre (ashram). In an aloof foreshowing of Singh, Bapu fought arrest for rape by battering in one of his ashrams, while his followers attacked journalists.

¹ Student, Modi University of Science and Technology

Few holy-men and their not-so-good holy deeds

Gurmeet Ram Rahim Singh

Dera represent the edge of the edge: equal to the courting the branch of the Davidians or the family of Manson. The 15 years detain between Ram Rahim's apparent rapes and his arrest voices volumes about Indian politics, none of them are positive. He superscripted the BJP in both 2014 assembly elections and Lok sabha elections in Haryana in same year. He was not so good to win against the Amarinder Singh's Congress when supported the saffron party in Punjab. In 2009, the Dera enlarged his support to the Z plus security cover the UPA gave him in 2007. Chhatrapati issuing stories about charges of rape on Ram Rahim. Political activist recalls how on October 2002, at a public meet, Chhatrapati explained the threats in detail which he was receiving. He was shot, after 2-4 days. Political activist says even though he was fighting for his life in hospital for around 3-4 weeks the Haryana polices under OP Chautala did not taken any dying declaration . In short, the rapist had hung a label of all politicians, put on sale to self.

Religion is a private event and my beliefs and business. The problem arises when a fraud religion Guru who is rapist, showcases their propinquity to the political power by sharing the stage with them. Using their aid, relief and charitable works in forefront that they can focus socially underprivileged in the caste matrix, the idea which they want to convey is that holy man is touch-me-not, politically approved by the bureau which they keeps.

Khatter didn't pluck up courage to put on Dera just because he was loaded under political support which he received in 2013-2014. 'You scratch my back and I will supposed to scratch your' Khatter do not able to take away the opportunity with Ram Rahim's lush nails harrowing out deep. Common man properties and blameless lives are having low labels to pay to hold on to seasonable friendship.

On 2017, August 25, Special CBI court in Haryana, conveyed its adjudication in sexual assault suit regarding Dera, detecting that Ram Rahim accountable of two rapes, he was taken into custody. 250,000 people or more than that in Haryana headed towards court premises. Followed by the conviction and there was a violent protests. On 28, August 2017, Special CBI court convicted him 20 years imprisonment, 10 years for each rape decision should be served back to back.

Asaram Bapu

The 76 years old, non black beard guru spread self-restraints and phrasing one's parents. The holy man who given the idea that the Valentine's Day was from foreign culture invasion in our country. He was arrested in 2013 after a teenage fanatic accused him for raping her at religious function. Other females' supporters also accused him for rape, in AFP profile. He has been in imprisonment since 2013 for rape and other criminal charges. His son Narayan Sai who in spiritual empire was senior functionary also convicted for rape.

Yet the spiritual consecutively stimulates devotion and 1000s of their followers march towards court even when there so called guru appears for hearings.

Well he was in more conflict because of local newspapers reported about the mysterious killings of witness.

Mehndi Kasim

Bombay court in May 2016, April sentenced the 43 years old holy man for raping the seven girls for life imprisonment. Kasim well known follower have four mentally challenged sons and fine daughters. He assured them to cure their sons from the disability just they are supposed to send their daughters to him for well treatment that would ensure them to give birth to fit and fine children.

Swami Premananda

Swami left Sri-Lanka and moved to India in 1984 to build a religion retreat place in Tirruchirappali. But in 1994, a 13 year old minor girl alleged that she was pregnant after being raped by the cruel rapist Swami Premananda. In 1997 he was convicted for the same.

Gnyan Anachaitanya

He was sentenced for 14 years of imprisonment for murdering three of his followers. After he got release, a British family convinced that he raped his daughter. He sexually abused and tortured the women. One of the woman escaped from their and field a complaint against him and Gnyan Anachaitanya was arrested again.

Conclusion:

Every point of time a fake baba perches exposed, one of them shocking about the fact of blind faith of the supporters who all are failed to see the real face of someone who was a con man at foremost, and a murderer, rapist at poorer!

What charms people to these types of fake god men? Why that desperate craving of need to faith someone has a fastest way to God than you do? Wanting reason and a perception of way, we all are promptly inviting someone who can look up to and follow. Our surroundings and families provide a sensation of meaning and the reason to most, and the work which we all do.

Research says that we sense most suggestive and satisfied when we do charity and serve to the needy people. That the reason we all looking for something beyond our day to day life. But unfortunately we got trapped into the con-guru who all are eagerly waiting for us.

Today's modern India looks like a modish nation with scientific inceptions, and bullet trains and expansive highways, but lay in social condition stinking of medievalism, caste discrimination, religious practices of deliberately preventing the facts , gender inequality and superstitions.